The Triumvirate between Pompey, Crassus and Caesar was renegotiated in Luca.

54/53 BC

Caesar returned from Cisalpine Gaul to Narbonnese Gaul earlier than usual in the season.

Two large German peoples, the Usipetes and Tencteri had crossed the Rhine in a mass from Westphalia; they sent Caesar a message to land on the left bank of the Rhine, instead he offered them territory on the right bank.

A costly engagement somehow began.
Caesar blamed the Germans who defeated
his bullock horse although outnumbered 6 to 1. Caesar arrested them all, fell on their camp (near MAASTRICHT), and annihilated the whole of the 2 tribes.
Enemy dead were estimated as high as 430,000
